

Curriculum Vitae

Michael Kozart, M.D., Ph.D.

Professional Experience

2006-Present: Medical Director, Santa Rosa Free Clinic, Santa Rosa, CA.

Responsibilities: Oversee the clinical operation of a free primary care clinic in downtown Santa Rosa; Precept UCSF Family Practice residents rotating through the clinic; Provide direct medical and mental health care to the homeless and the uninsured; Health care outreach to other neighboring homeless shelters.

2005-Present: Staff Psychiatrist, Sonoma County Department of Mental Health.

Responsibilities: Provide psychiatric care in clinic, hospital, and emergency room settings; Co-Run the Special Assessment Program for patients with dual diagnoses.

2005-Present: Assistant Clinical Professor of Psychiatry/Voluntary Faculty, UCSF/SFGH Department of Psychiatry.

Responsibilities: Lecture interns and residents in the UCSF Department of Psychiatry Residency Training Program.

2002-2005: Unit Director, SFGH Department of Psychiatry/Assistant Professor of Psychiatry, UCSF.

Responsibilities: Medical director for in-patient psychiatry unit at the San Francisco General Hospital (the county hospital for San Francisco); Supervise staff psychiatrists; Train medical students and interns; Enhance cultural competency amongst hospital staff; Maintain compliance with county, state and national regulatory institutions governing in-patient psychiatric care; Provide administrative leadership and continuing education for nursing staff; Collaborate with Nurse Manager in developing quality improvement programs; Participate in department wide linkage committee for community based patient care.

1999-2002: Assistant Clinical Professor, Department of Psychiatry, UCLA Neuropsychiatric Institute.

Responsibilities: Provide psychiatric care in out-patient, and in-patient settings; Attend in ElectroConvulsive Therapy (ECT) Program; Teach Psychiatric Residents; Member UCLA/Neuropsychiatric Hospital Peer Review Committee and Committee on Quality Improvement; Consult to a number of UCLA affiliated skilled nursing facilities.

Professional Experience (continued).

1995-1997: Medical Director, Excelsior House Community Rehabilitation Program, Didi Hirsch Community Mental Health Center, Inglewood, CA

Responsibilities: Clinical supervision of a short-term, county funded community based residential rehabilitation program for the mentally ill.

1994-1996: Staff Psychiatrist, Didi Hirsch Community Mental Health Center, Culver City, CA

Responsibilities: Out-patient clinic care of the mentally ill.

Education

1991-1999 Ph.D. Medical Anthropology University of California at Berkeley, Berkeley, CA.
1997-1999 Robert Wood Johnson Clinical Scholar UCLA School of Medicine, Los Angeles, CA.
1996-1997 Chief Resident in Geriatric Psychiatry, Department of Psychiatry and Biobehavioral Sciences UCLA School of Medicine, Los Angeles, CA.
1994-1997 Resident in General Psychiatry, Department of Psychiatry and Biobehavioral Sciences UCLA School of Medicine, Los Angeles, CA.
1993-1994 Internship in General Medicine The Cambridge Hospital, Cambridge, MA.
1989-1991 M.A. Anthropology University of California at Berkeley, Berkeley, CA.
1987-1993 M.D. University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA.
1983-1987 B.A. Major in Political Science with Honors, Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, PA.

Licensures/Certifications

1999-Current Board Certified, American Board of Psychiatry & Neurology
1995 California State Medical License #G80689
1995 DEA License #BK4422755

Training Awards and Honorary Fellowships

1998 Outstanding Physician Award, Department of Nursing, UCLA Neuropsychiatric Institute.
1997 Laughlin Fellow, American College of Psychiatry.
1997 Rogawski Memorial Prize UCLA Neuropsychiatric Institute.
1996 Rogawski Memorial Prize UCLA Neuropsychiatric Institute.
1995 Outstanding Resident Award, National Institute of Mental Health.
1992 Measey Foundation Training Award, Department of Psychiatry, University of Pennsylvania.
1990 Regent's Fellowship for Graduate Study in Anthropology, University of California.
1988 National Fund for Medical Education Research Fellowship.
1987 Phi Beta Kappa.

Professional Interests

Homeless Health Care and Medical Outreach to Underserved Populations
Substance Abuse Treatment and Recovery
Community Based Psychiatry/Community Based Recovery
Psychiatric Education
Disaster Relief/Common Ground Health Collective
Medical Anthropology and Cross-Cultural Perspectives on Mental Illness
Social Science Perspectives on Psychotherapy
Philosophical and Spiritual Perspectives on Healing

Recent Presentations

A Grass-Roots Approach to Emergency Medical Care in Post-Katrina New Orleans.
Department of Anthropology, Berkeley, April 19, 2006.

Therapeutic Engagement: How to talk to patients effectively (and not so effectively).
Staff Development Lecture Series, Sonoma County Department of Mental Health, June 15 and June 20, 2006.

Peer Reviewed Articles

Kozart, M. Understanding Efficacy in Psychotherapy: An Ethnomethodological Perspective on the Therapeutic Alliance. American Journal of Orthopsychiatry. 72(2):217-231, 2002.

Kozart, M. A Sociological Perspective on the Therapeutic Alliance: Ethnomethodology and Conversation Analysis. Psychotherapy. 33(3): 361-371,1996.

Letters, Abstracts and Reviews

Kozart, M. Blessed Anastacia: Women, Race and Popular Christianity in Brazil (Book Review). American Ethnologist. 28(2): 465-466, 2001.

Kozart, M. Religious Healing and the Phenomenology of Worship Ritual in Latino Pentecostalism. Abstract and Speech Presented at The Robert Wood Johnson Clinical Scholar's Meeting. Fort Lauderdale, Florida, 1999.

Kozart, M. Faith Healing and Medical Healing: An Ethnographic Study of a Latino Pentecostal Church. Abstract Presented at The Robert Wood Johnson Clinical Scholar's Meeting. Fort Lauderdale, Florida, 1998.

Kozart, M. Religious Experience Was Not Correctly Defined. The Journal of Neuropsychiatry and Clinical Neurosciences. 10(4): 475-476,1998.

Popular Media

Kozart, M. Mutual Aid works in post-Katrina New Orleans: The Common Ground Clinic helps pick up the pieces in Algiers. The Alternative Press Review, Vol 10 (1), Spring 2006. [Originally published on Alternet, Sept 30, 2005 under the title "A Bold and Beautiful Vision"; Also reprinted in San Francisco Bay View].

Kozart, M. Editorial: Hunters Point Power Plant—Time for Closure. San Francisco Chronicle, Friday May 13: B9, 2005. [Reprinted in: San Francisco Bay View: June 22, 2005]

Kozart, M. Editorial: Resuscitating Health Care. Russian River Times, October 29: 7-8, 2004.

Kozart, M. Editorial: Are We Paying for More Than We Get? San Francisco Chronicle, Tuesday May 25: B9, 2004.

Kozart, M., MacKenzie, P., Carlin, J., Kirson, B. Editorial: False Economy--Cutting Care for the Mentally Ill. San Francisco Chronicle, Thursday May 8:A29, 2003.

Unpublished Manuscripts

Kozart, M. Efficacy as an Accountable Phenomenon: An Ethnomethodological Study of Healing in a Latino Pentecostal Church, 2002.

Kozart, M. Healing in a Latino Pentecostal Church: A Socioempirical Argument About Efficacy, 2000.

Kozart, M. Practice, Meaning and Belief in Latino Pentecostalism: A Study of the Dynamics of Religious Healing, Theology and Social Order. Ph.D. Dissertation, University of California at Berkeley, 1999.

Kozart, M. Phenomenological Psychology as Experiential Science: The Intuitive Resource of Distress, 1998.

Kozart, M. From Husserl to Virtual Reality: Phenomenological Psychology and the Scientific Quest for the Mind. Unpublished Monograph, 1997.